

JUVENALIA

A festival celebrated by university students in Cracow since Medieval times. The students are given the key to the city and parade through the streets dressed in unusual costumes. They organize public games, art exhibits, shows, etc. It is almost like a fashion parade from historical times to the present. "Miss Juvenalia" is chosen to reign.

